Local Civic and Fraternal Clubs To Sponsor Boys to Represent Hancock County at Magnolia Boys' State

These sponsoring organizations are to be commended for their interest in the youth of our city and county. They have demonstrated that interest by accepting an invitation from the American Legion to sponsor three boys to represent Hancock County at Magnolia Boys' State July 15 to July 22.

Lucien M. Gex, Jr., St. Stanislaus; John McCurdy, Bay High; Claude J. Mauffrey, Kiln Consolidated have been selected by the principal of their respective schools.

Boys' State is a plan for training in the functional aspects of citizenship. It is a program of education sponsored by the American Legion, Department of Mississippi. Its purpose is to teach the youth of today constructive attitudes toward the American form of government. Magnolia Boys' State demonstrates that the system of constitutional democratic government is the best of all possible systems and that the essential needs of a democracy are an intelligent citizenry, together with a clean, honest and impartial administration entirely responsive to the will of the people.

Two hundred twenty boys will be at Boys' State coming from every county in Mississippi. In Boys' State the boys have their own city, county and state government. They elect their own city, county and state officials. They learn the duties of the various public offices, their functions, their limitations and their powers. They have their legislature, introduce and argue their own bills, they have their city council, and their own city officials. They make and enforce ordinances regulating their cities, conduct their own elections, they have their own police force, court of law and administer justice. The boy has a chance to learn for himself that his government is just what he makes it. Every boy will have a definite and integral part in the function of Boys' State. The splendid facilities of Behrman College will be available to the boy-citizens of Magnolia Boys' State of particular interest will be the sessions of the legislature in the House and Senate Chambers in the New State Capitol where the young officials will conduct their own sessions in the halls where the laws of Mississippi have been made for 47 years.

DOLL

Don't miss seeing the lovely baby doll and complete layette made and donated by Miss Vicky Gex to be raffled for the benefit of the Altar Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Church and which is on display at Mauffrey's Dry Goods Store.

The layette has handmade shirts, dummies, gowns, gettredue, dresses, sacques, both crocheted and of material with bonnets to match and even little mittens. The little bassinet was donated by Mrs. J. O. Beuhler, on Main Street. The whole ensemble is so appealing that even grownups would like to own it. Everyone donating ten cents will have an opportunity to own it and will appreciate the work and care that has been given to make the doll and the layette so exquisitely dainty.

Preceding the crowning Monsignor Gmelch said the rosary and gave a short talk and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed the ceremony.

St. Stanislaus Orchestra To Present 'Panorama of Jazz'

The St. Stanislaus Music Department will present an orchestra in a jazz concert entitled, "Panorama of Jazz," on Saturday, May 27, at 8:15 p.m. in St. Joseph Academy auditorium.

Such a program is an entirely new venture here in our southern high schools and, therefore, should be of paramount interest to all the lovers of "swinging."

In addition to several instrumentalists, the program will include the following three skits: "The History of Jazz," an authentic picture of the evolution of jazz from the primitive negro folk forms to the modern complexities assumed in Stan Kenton's progressivism; "A Decade of Hits," includes a resume of the top tunes of the nation dating back to 1940; "Stan Kenton's Montage," this is a tribute to this great component of modern jazz.

The instrumental section will include several standards among which is George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue." The program was so arranged as to be of interest to the nation, young and old. It is a presentation of jazz in its many possible forms.

John D. Smith, Highway Commissioner Speaks to Members of Rotary And Others About Highway

Says 100-Foot Width Needed for Four Lane Road

At the weekly Rotary luncheon meeting at Hotel Reed Wednesday afternoon there were forty seven persons attending. President A. H. Gregory presided, and asked the secretary to introduce the guests, Messrs. Sylvester Pagano, George Curt of Kiln, Fred Laddner, Pearl River and Dr. Foundation of Logtown, all guests of Mr. H. H. Shattuck, Dr. J. F. Dicks, guest of Dr. A. Evans and Mayor Warren Carver, Commissioners Glover and Laddner, Bill Hays and John Scafe, visiting Rotarians were Floyd Brainerd, Pass Christian; D. Emerett Irwin, New Orleans; Fred Moore and Billy Stevens, Piquette and Leo Seal of Gulfport.

Mr. Gregory then introduced Mr. Alden Mauffrey, the incoming president, who in turn, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. John D. Smith, State Highway Commissioner.

Mr. Smith, in leading up to the main topic, where to place the four lane roadway to the new concrete bridge over Bay St. Louis, said that he was not ready to present facts but came to answer questions and to discuss a common problem.

"The State Highway Department is a creature of the Legislature. We are created by law, derive our power from the legislature and are financed by the legislature. We cannot raise any finances whatever. In 1947 everybody who ran for office, from constable to governor, promised everything they could for votes. They promised roads and it was impossible to give everyone roads. A committee of two men was sent out with experts from Washington, engineering statisticians, to redesign the State Highway Department. The last account was to give Mississippi a road program but the problem was to finance it. You folks do not like to pay taxes. We need more roads in Mississippi and can get you improved highways but we need money. We are allowed 1c per gallon gas tax money. Seven mills will be available on July 1st of this year which means seven million more for the state of Mississippi and the Legislature was to get money to match this for the road program. They tried to raise gasoline tax 2c but could not; it was raised only 1c. The funds from the gas tax allocated so that one third goes to the northern part of the state, one-third to the middle and one-third to the southern primary systems carry heavy traffic, and over three million dollars is allocated for primary systems.

A special problem is recognized on the Gulf Coast. The legislature said they cannot give the Mississippi Gulf Coast what it should have out of normal money. It must be specially considered. To give Highway 90 what it really needs would cost 18 million dollars for four lane bridges instead of two lane.

"To show you the Coast has not been discriminated against, I will show you what has been collected and what you have paid out. In 1936 when the road program started in Mississippi there were 1992 miles at that time. Now there are 4600 miles. Harrison County through the fiscal year of July 1948 to July 1949 paid into the State Highway department $2,127,149.67 and got back from the State $4,254,000.00. Hancock County paid in $288,040.84 and got back $1,853,165.60. These figures show the coast has not been imposed on, but the coast has a special problem."

Mr. Jos. Scharff asked if the Highway is the only department which furnishes revenue. Mr. Smith said the tags furnish $100 also the drivers' licenses, yet the State Highway Department had to support the motor vehicle officers and the motor vehicle controller's office. Another thing that makes the coast a problem is the expense of the 10 bridge tenders on bridges at Pascagoula, Pearlington and Bay St. Louis.

Mr. H. H. Shattuck asked "what does the expenditure of $1,853,165.60 by the state Highway Department cover?" Mr. Smith replied, "the maintenance of roads."

In a letter to the Legislature in special session last November Mr. Smith recommended that a new concrete, four lane bridge be built at Bay St. Louis. He said that the Mississippi Gulf Coast is not the property of three counties but the property of Mississippi and asked for cooperation on the emergency conditions that exist on the Gulf Coast. He said he could not tell just when the present bridge would "go out" but it definitely would "go out" at some future time and the committee from Washington recommended to the Legislature that they give special consideration to the Gulf Coast.

Mr. Smith said it would be foolish to build anything but a four lane highway as it is one of the main highways in the country.

He offered three ways to finance the bridge and approach: (1) Full faith and credit bonds in the state of Mississippi; (2) Revenue Bonds paid out in gasoline tax; (3) Revenue bonds to be paid from a toll.

Mr. Smith personally opposed the toll but offered it as a last resort.

Were sub standard roads to be built it is quite likely that Bay St. Louis would be bypassed in years to come.

and a standard roadway requires about 100 feet whereas the present roadway on Ulman Avenue is 54 feet and it is unlikely that ground can be taken from either side because of the school building and the water tower.

This meeting followed another in Gulfport recently when prominent men from Gulfport and other towns, Hattiesburg, etc. met with Mr. Smith to protest the moving of the present highway. Following this meeting the Chamber of Commerce met with Mr. Smith to try to find some way to have the highway remain in its present location, yet have a four lane roadway.

At some future time there is to be a general meeting and it is hoped that some solution will have been found.

MAY 18, 1950 SPECIAL RESOLUTION

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday afternoon, Commissioner John D. Smith presented a signed copy of a resolution adopted at a meeting held April 4, 1950, sponsored by the Hancock Chamber of Commerce and attended by leaders of local civic and fraternal groups.

The resolution pointing out reasons why it is imperative that the proposed bridge across the Bay of St. Louis should be located so as to minimize the rerouting of Highway 90.

The resolution is as follows: WHEREAS, on the 4th day of April 1950, a meeting sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Hancock County, Mississippi, was held for the purpose of discussing the location of the proposed toll bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, at which meeting the various civic and fraternal organizations of Hancock County were duly represented, and

WHEREAS, after a full discussion of the subject, it was the unanimous opinion of all the groups present that it would be to the best interest and welfare of the people of Hancock County that the proposed bridge be located adjacent to the present bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, and that the present location of the highway in the present bridge be retained, instead of moving the highway to another part of the city of Bay St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, in support of said opinion, the group offered the following reasons, to-wit:

1. That many businesses have been built bordering the present highway running through the City of Bay St. Louis, and a change of location would cause the owners to suffer financially, and would cause the City of Bay St. Louis to suffer a loss of taxation as a result of the decrease in the value of the property.

2. That approximately 95 per cent of the adjoining property owners along the present highway in Bay St. Louis have expressed a willingness to convey additional ground for right-of-way purpose in case the present location is retained.

3. That if the present location is not used, any other location would necessitate the highway going through valuable beach property, which would be objectionable to any property owner which it traversed, and to the adjoining property owners, since it would decrease the residential value of said property.

4. That the approach to the present location of the bridge on the Bay St. Louis side, and adjoining land thereto, is one of the most elevated spots on the Bay St. Louis side, and the body of water traversed in one of the narrowest points thus making it possible to save the State of Mississippi approximately $750,000.00 in actual bridge costs.

5. That it would not be necessary to spend very much money for additional right-of-way purposes for land if the same location were utilized, but if a change is made in the location of the roadway, then it would necessitate a large expenditure of money for right-of-way purposes and road construction work.

6. That the City of Bay St. Louis is primarily a resort town and not a commercial city, and desires the present location of the highway, rather than the routing of through traffic farther from the center of town.

7. That during the past three years the City of Bay St. Louis has suffered three serious set-backs causing much financial loss, property damage and loss of life; namely, the 1947 hurricane, over the Bay of St. Louis due to fire over the Bay of St. Louis, and the moving of the bridge to another location, may prove disastrous.

WHEREAS, there were numerous other reasons given by the group assembled, but the above constitute the primary reasons, and it was unanimously agreed that an appeal be made to the State Highway Commission and the Hancock Bank, appointed as Trustee of the bonds for the construction of a toll bridge, for the retention of the same location of U. S. Highway 90 through Bay St. Louis to the Bay of St. Louis, and that the future location of the new toll bridge to be constructed, be so constructed at or adjacent to the same location as the present bridge.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that it is the unanimous opinion of all of the undersigned organizations that it is the desire of the members of said organizations that when the proposed toll bridge over the Bay of St. Louis is constructed, that it be so constructed in the same location as the present bridge, or as closely adjacent thereto as is possible, and that the location of Highway 90 passing through the City of Bay St. Louis to said bridge be retained in its present location.

Dutch Industrialist Visits Here

Inspects Possible Sites

Correspondence which began in March, 1950, between Mayor Warren Carver and a Dutch industrialist from Weert, Holland, resulted in the visit Wednesday morning of Mr. F. H. G. Beeren and his secretary, Miss Anita Elias, both of the European city, to Bay St. Louis to discuss the probable location here of a plant for the manufacture of knitted underwear. Mr. Beeren and his secretary were accompanied by Mr. Harry Clark, Industrial Agent for the Mississippi Power Company.

Present at the meeting to discuss the matter with the industrialist and his secretary were: Harry Clark, Mr. Laurent Dickson, Dr. B. L. Ramsey, Mr. R. Terrell Perkins, Commissioner J. Cyril Glover, and Mayor Warren Carver.

Both Miss Elias and Mr. Beeren expressed themselves as being much impressed with Bay St. Louis as a possible location. The nearness of New Orleans to this was, they said, a favorable factor. Another even more important factor, they said, was the fact that it seemed that from the contacts that had been made locally and from the correspondence they had received that they would be assured of a cordial reception here.

Mr. Beeren and Miss Elias left at noon Wednesday to inspect locations in other communities in Mississippi who have made a bid for their plant.

The resolution pointing out reasons why it is imperative that the proposed bridge across the Bay of St. Louis should be located so as to minimize the rerouting of Highway 90.

The resolution is as follows: WHEREAS, on the 4th day of April 1950, a meeting sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Hancock County, Mississippi, was held for the purpose of discussing the location of the proposed toll bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, at which meeting the various civic and fraternal organizations of Hancock County were duly represented, and

WHERE WILL THE NEW BRIDGE BE BUILT?

Where will the proposed new highway bridge be built? Will the highway be rerouted? These questions are nearer being answered now than they were some months ago, when the state legislature passed the necessary bills allowing the highway commission to build a new concrete bridge over the Bay of St. Louis to replace the old dilapidated wooden structure we now use, and which has cost the state untold thousands in repair and upkeep.

Moving the bridge from its present location may seem a mere trifle to others, less interested but to the residents and business people of Bay St. Louis it is a matter of much importance. Looking at it from the standpoint of business alone, let us start from the bridge itself. Bay St. Louis has one hotel, situated at the foot of the bridge, which gets the majority of its business from tourists, who travel the highway. How many of these tourists would stop here if they did not see this hotel on the highway? Then there are many service stations which have been built in the past ten or fifteen years, whose revenue is derived mainly from tourist travel. Besides there are numerous restaurants and peccan and praline and gift shops, depending entirely on tourist income. These all would be as dead as last year's driver's license, if the highway was moved from its present location.

Then there is another angle—where the new highway has been proposed to be built would break right through a private residential section, and would upset property values as much for these residents as it would for those business people now served by the highway.

Yes, we think this is a matter of more importance than some people attach to it and that a lot of serious thinking and planning should be done before the matter is finally settled.

We, like the majority of our residents favor leaving the bridge and highway in its present location.

ARMED SERVICES DAY

With the unification of the defense forces of the nation, the President has proclaimed Saturday, May 20th, as Armed Forces Day, with the idea that appropriate programs be carried out throughout the nation to pay tribute to the men and women who wear, and have worn, the uniform of their country.

In many of the cities and towns of the country, a program will be carried out, with speeches, parades and other ceremonies. Altogether, there will be a general expression of public appreciation for the work and fighting of our soldiers, sailors, marines and air-men. They have done, and are doing, well by their country.

We hope that the programs, as they are executed, will not be perfunctory or that the parades will constitute the accomplishments of the day. In the hearts and minds of patriotic citizens there should arise a fervent acknowledgment of the debt we owe to fighting men in the past and the confident prayer that, in case of peril in the future, other brave and courageous men and women will carry on. Men and women who faced the enemy in the past deserve especial recognition. They should be carefully distinguished from the arm-chair warriors who took care of themselves in times of battle and now, very often, occupy the limelight in proclaiming their patriotism. Not every exercise man, it should be noted, has been overly-interested in the money-grants that a generous government has poured out somewhat indiscriminately.

Upon this day let us remember the young men who gave their lives for their country. Let us not overlook the wounded and disabled who will, to a large extent, not be present in the parades or the audience that hears the verbal acclaims that prominent speakers will express. Indeed let us interest ourselves, just a little bit, in the welfare of these wounded and in the surviving orphans of soldiers who left them to the care of a proud republic.

Prospects Bleak For Pass Marine School Operation

Wash. (AP)—Prospects for the operation of the Marine School at Pass, La., are bleak, according to a report from the U. S. Navy.

The school, which was established in 1945, has been operating at a loss of $100,000 a year, and the Navy is considering closing it.

The school was established to train officers in the use of the new type of aircraft carrier, but the Navy is now considering closing it.

WORLD'S LARGEST PLANE TO SALUTE COAST ON MAY 20

The Air Force's giant B-36, the world's largest bomber, will give an aerial salute to the visitors of Keesler at Gulfport, Miss., on May 20.

The giant plane, 116 feet long and with a wing span of 240 feet, will zoom over Keesler and nearby areas, but will not land. The B-36 is capable of carrying a bomb load of over 10,000 pounds to any spot in the world and return to its home base. The airplane is capable of hauling a payload of over 22,000 pounds 24 hours a day on a shorter range.

The B-36 is scheduled to arrive over Keesler at 4:11 p.m. from its home base at Carswell Air Force Base at Fort Worth, Texas.

Long a controversial subject in the eyes of the nation, the B-36 has now proved itself as a superb bomber. It has remained up for 30 hours in the air without landing or refueling its six engines mounted on the trailing edge of the wing. It is over 18,000 feet high. The latest models are equipped with four additional jet engines to give the bomber additional speed at take-off. It is capable of flying at 40,000 feet.

Without the jets the speed of this giant is over 400 miles per hour. To paint a picture of the size of the B-36, if the plane was turned on its side, resting on one wing tip, the distance to the other wingtip would equal the height of a 14-story building. From the ground to the tip of the giant under the distance is equal to a 14-story building.

Trifles & Treasures

by PEGGY FOOTE

"Secret are the uses of adversity, like the bad, ugly and venomous, it is a precious jewel in his belt." Immortal Shakespeare! what lessons can we learn from these!

When has a trial ever failed to bring to us some good, new wisdom, mellowness, unselfishness, perhaps if we but look for the good in every circumstance?

Recently a neighbor demonstrated that she was being annoyed by a pair of persistent pigeons, who were trying to nest under her awning. Try putting camouflaged balls in the inviting areas, Lela, and see if your unwelcome visitors can't be thoroughly discouraged.

Here is a recipe that my family has used for years. It is quite simple yet is refreshing as a summer drink and has a distinct flavor all its own:

2 1/2 cup sugar 6 lemons
 2 cups water 2 oranges

Mix water and sugar together and bring to a boil slowly. Boil rapidly for 10 minutes. Take a generous handful of mint and pour hot syrup over it.
 Add juice of lemons and oranges.
 Steep for 1 hour, strain into a quart
 jar. Use 4 tbs. to an ice tea glass. Add water and crushed ice. Delicious! Try it for your next Canasta party.

I am thinking of a man I know in his eighties who is a successful painter.
 He didn't begin his art career until he was sixty-five years old. He has won many monetary prizes with his exhibits.
 My point is, we are decidedly never too old to do something useful and constructive—and he good at it. I also know a woman who began horse-back riding as a hobby at the age of fifty-two and is now quite good at jump racing.
 Let's don't let the beetles get in our bonnets, girls. I know the heat is coming and swiftly, but we can do progressive things without exerting ourselves. The object is to keep mentally alert. Reading is marvelous for that.

Put away your red trapping for the summer, girls. Red reflects heat and is reminiscent of fire and warmth. It is said that color has a psychological effect on us. I use cool, pale colors instead.
 An exception to this suggestion, I think, is Navy blue or black sheer.

Congressional Sidelights

CONGRESSMAN WM. M. COLMER

GOVERNMENTAL ECONOMY

The House this past week completed action on its one package appropriation bill, a bill carrying total appropriations of more than 29 billions of dollars. As we previously pointed out, this is the first time that all of the necessary appropriations for the operation of the various agencies of the Government have been considered in one bill. Here, for the first time, a dozen of these bills, which are the department of the Government.

Just before the final vote on the bill a number of amendments were offered looking to reduce the huge appropriation. One of these amendments had for its purpose the cutting of approximately 500 million dollars from the bill. Another sought to reduce Federal employment by 10 percent during the next fiscal year. Both amendments were hotly contested, and it was admitted that the amendments were not workable and crippling. It must be admitted that the amendments were not workable and crippling. The FEPC fight now going on in the Senate is of great importance to those who believe in the dignity and integrity of American citizenship. If politicians can fasten the FEPC upon the American people, we will have been shoved a long mile down the road into national socialism. An interesting skirmish in this civil rights controversy is now going on.

ing on in the District of Columbia. The recreation program in the District of Columbia is controlled by a seven-member Recreation Board. The Administration, for a number of years, has been trying to break down segregation within the District of Columbia and within the schools of the District of Columbia. The seven-member Recreation Board has been divided 4 to 3 in this matter of segregation. 4 members favoring segregation and 3 members favoring that all segregation be eliminated. Mr. James E. Schwab, a long-time conservative member of this Board is now up for reappointment. The idea back of the move is to replace Mr. Schwab with someone who will vote for non-segregation. If the Department of the Interior has its way, the white children of Washington will no longer have public swimming pools or playgrounds to which they can go without being outnumbered by colored children.
